This event will be run on one contest area and is open to all BJC members and members of the BJA & AJA in the categories for 8-year-olds and above.

A valid and up to date licence must be produced on the day – No Licence = no contest & no refund

- All Primary age categories will be matched into pools of three, four or five by closest weight
- Please note that the 5 – 7 age category is closed to BJC licence holders only.
- Age Junior categories for 10 – 12 & 13 – 15 Year olds will be competing in standard BJC weight categories
- Where numbers permit, weight categories may also be split by grade.
- All contests will be fought using the latest BJC Contest rules, a copy of which can be found on the BJC website: http://www.bjcjudoevents.org.uk/bjc\_contest\_rules.pdf Please note the restricted techniques for Primary & Junior categories.
- There will be no penalty for moving up OR down weight categories, please be aware that each competitor will only be allowed ONE weigh in.
- Zoris MUST be worn to the contest area, any competitor arriving at the contest area not wearing zoris or flip flops (not crocs) will be asked to change their footwear accordingly.
- By entering this competition, coaches and parents agree to allow videos and photographs to be taken.
- The referee's decision will be final.
- Water may be brought to the side of the mat if it is in a sealed drinks bottle.
- Judogi must be white and comply with BJC regulations. Reversible Judogi will NOT be accepted. No White Judogi = no contest & no refund.
- NO COACHING WILL BE ALLOWED FROM THE SIDE OF THE MAT OR FROM THE CROWD – anyone caught coaching from the side of the mat risks the competitor being disqualified from that contest.
